

DISTRICT UPDATE

www.armyengineersnorfolk.com

August 22, 2008

DISTRICT NEWS

Intelligence ground station project underway

The much-heralded Distributed Common Ground System or DCGS-1 is on track and well within budget for a March 2009 completion. (more)

Contract awarded for barracks at Fort Eustis

W.M. Jordan/Versar of Newport News, Va., awarded $27.5 million firm-fixed price contract to construct 336-room, standard-design barracks at Fort Eustis. (more)

Corps slogan shows Army connection

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has selected and begun rolling out a new slogan, "Building Strong." (more)

September parking space giveaway

The district's welfare council is giving employees the chance to win V.I.P. parking. (more)

Hail and Farewell

Several new employees join the district ranks and we welcome them all. (more)

Be the first to read our web stories

Visit our website to subscribe to the Norfolk District RSS feeds. (more)

NEWS AROUND THE CORPS

Corps Civilians receive Medal of Freedom

Wounded in Iraq, two USACE Civilians received the Medal of Freedom, the Civilian equivalent of the Purple Heart. (more)

PUBLIC NOTICES

District announces reissuance and modifications of the following Regional Permits and Letters of Permission. (more)

Promoted recently? Receive an award?

Army & Air Force Hometown News gives service members and DOD civilians the ability to keep friends, family and colleagues informed through the 14,000 newspapers, television and radio stations subscribing to Hometown's free service

- Training/School Completion
- Promotions, Awards and Decorations
- Assignment/Reassignment
- Professional Certification
- Retirements
- Award of Degrees
- Hiring Actions
- Deployment/Redeployment

Contact the Public Affairs Office for more information.

ARMY/DOD NEWS

Army to overhaul civilian career management

The Department of the Army is launching a pilot test of a new civilian personnel management system. The service intends to integrate disparately managed career programs into a centralized system. (more)

AKO tests new wiki capability

The Army Knowledge Online and Defense Knowledge Online Project offices launch pilot program for wiki. (more)

Mileage reimbursement raised to 58.5 cents

Driving your personally owned vehicle on business just got a bump for mileage reimbursement. (more)

Army training for emergency preparedness

Participants at the Army Emergency Management's annual workshop for installation preparedness train for Hurricane Fay. (more)

DoD accepts IDs issued by contractors

Defense Department communications networks are accepting the secure electronic identities of contractors' employees that are issued by their companies. (more)